Sandra Biroc moved back to her home in Alameda, Calif. in March after having danced with us since about 2009. She was a very energetic dancer and brought or revived quite a few dances from the other 'villages' that she has danced at. She served on the FDC Board for a little over a year, but her contribution to the FDC and Saturday night dancing went far beyond that and was greatly appreciated (especially the food).

Speaking of food, she was the driving force behind providing the Membership Party dinners the last couple of years. How do we replace that?

Bye Sandra, please visit often.
