Angel Nazlamov is one of the truly outstanding accordion players in Bulgaria. He first took up accordion in his teenage years. One of his first teachers was eminent Bulgarian accordionist Ivan Milev. Angel graduated from the Specialized National Folk Music School in Shiroka Luka, where he studied kaval (shepherd's pipe) with Ivaylo Koutchev and music theory with Kostadin Lyolev. Angel started his professional career with "Trakia" State Folk Ensemble and at the same time was solo accordionist for Dalboki Izvor Orchestra. He played with the most famous clarinet players such as Biser Bayram, Osman Sadovetsa, Yashko Argirov, Dimitar Paskov. For many years Angel played with "Yuzhnyache" Dance Ensemble and toured extensively in Greece, Turkey, France, Italy and Ukraine.

In 1988 Angel Nazlamov and Nikolay Trifonov founded the "Slavyani" Orchestra, performed numerous concerts and recorded several CD's with their music. In these recordings Angel Nazlamov stands out not only as a virtuoso musician, but also as a talented composer. He has recently been involved in many musical workshops where he teaches accordion.

Angel repeatedly tours the United States as soloist and accordion instructor and as accompany musician to dance workshops and dance classes. He first came to the States in 2003 with the choreographer and dance researcher Daniela Ivanova. Over the years Daniela & Angel's "Kadem Duo" presented hundreds of workshops in more than half of the US states.

Daniela Ivanova is an accomplished, professional folk dance teacher, choreographer and researcher of the South Slavic folk culture.

She was born and raised in Sofia, Bulgaria and began dancing at age 4, learning traditional dances from her grandmother, a native from the Shop region. At age 12 Daniela began touring Europe as a member of Rosna Kitka Children's Folk Dance Ensemble. Daniela later became a full-time teacher in choreography, ethnography and philosophy. She was a co-founder of Medena Pitka school ensemble, artistic director of Tropanka folk dance group (New Bulgarian University), and assistant choreographer of Zornitsa University Student Folk Ensemble. She worked as assistant professor in cultural anthropology at St. Kliment Ohridski Sofia University, as a lecturer in dance folklore at New Bulgarian University, and other institutions. As a dancer, choreographer, dance teacher, field researcher and scholar she has traveled repeatedly to France, Netherlands, Belgium, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Germany, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Romania, Moldova, Ukraine, former Yugoslavia, Malta, Singapore, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Turkey, Cyprus, Greece, Israel, and Mongolia.

Since 2003 Daniela has made teaching tours to the U.S., appearing in over 25 states. She has taught at major dance camps: Stockton, California (2005, 2008), Mainwoods Folk Dance Camp (2008), Florida Folk Dance Camp (2007), San Antonio Folk Dance Camp (2007), Chicago Spring Festival (2006, 2007), Buffalo on the Danube: Labor Day International Music and Dance Weekend (2009), Balkanalia Music and Dance Camp, Oregon (2009, 2010, 2011), and more.

Daniela completed her Ph.D. at the Institute of Art Studies, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences (2010), specializing in Ethnochoreology and Dance anthropology. Her two Masters degrees are from St. Kliment Ohridski Sofia University: Philosophy, with Cultural Anthropology minor, and Bulgarian Philology, with specialization in folklore. She also holds a Bachelor degree from Institute for Music and Choreography (Sofia). Her scientific publications focus on folk dance activities in the Balkans and the US.
