August 9th Turkish Dance Workshop with Ercüment Kılıç, 6:00 – 8:00 pm. Ercüment Kılıç was born in Ankara, Turkey, to parents of Azerbaijani background. He comes from a large family of dancers and musicians. At the age of four, he began dancing with his uncle, Selahattin Kılıç, one of the foremost authorities on Azerbaijani dance. In addition, Ercüment spent his summers in Iğdir, a town on the skirts of Mt. Ararat, better known as the town of a thousand and one weddings. Everyone danced, including Ercüment.

Ercüment had early education and training in music (he played the accordion) and dance, was a member of the Turkish Folklore Ensemble of Ankara in 1976, and was a member of the Turkish National Ensemble. He came to the United States in 1977 to obtain a degree in engineering. During his university years, he was invited to present Turkish music dance at events in all 50 states of the U.S. as well as many foreign countries.

He is known worldwide for his contributions to the promotion of Turkish culture and has written various cultural articles that have been published in a number of languages. Ercüment was a long-time president of the Turkish association TURANT and he initiated many grassroots activities and projects that were later adopted by other Turkish-American organizations around the country.

Ercüment teaches Azerbaijani-Turkish line and couple dances and a selection of Turkish dances from central Anatolia and the Black Sea area. He last taught at Stockton Folk Dance Camp in 1983 and 1984.

$10 - $15, Free for $250 members. Bring a snack to share. Followed by regular International Folk Dancing.

Aug 23rd Ice Cream Social, 7:30 pm. Bring your favorite Ice Cream and topping to share. Also Chin Yu will be teaching some dances from Stockton. She is planning to teach Hey Gidi by Ercument, Serez by Bata, and Gras Kalo by Roberto.

August 27th Scandi Dance Party! 7:30-10:00 pm. Come and dance to live music provided by Paul Johnson and Annie Grace, fiddle, and Mark Williamsen, string bass.
$11 ($10 / $9 / $8 / Free for FDC members). Please bring a snack to share!
