Note: Starting with the spring semester (4th week of January), the Community College Extension classes that have allowed us to provide free dance classes on Monday evenings and Wednesday mornings, will no longer be carrying physical education classes. This will mean that these two classes will no longer receive city funding and we will have to change their format (from free to pay).

As of the time that I right this, both classes will continue to meet (mostly at the same times), but we do not know if it will be by donation or membership level. I will update the status of these classes in the weekly newsletter.
