Iliana Bozhanova is a native of Galabovo, Bulgaria, and comes from a family of South Thracian musicians and singers. She completed her Bachelors and Masters Degrees in "Bulgarian Folk Dances and Choreography" in Plovdiv at the Academy of Music and Dance Art, the oldest in the Balkans and the most prestigious Folk Art Academy in Bulgaria. In 1981, she graduated from the National School for Art Instructors. For the past 25 years she has worked as a professional dance teacher and choreographer in Bulgaria. Since 2004, she has served as artistic director Ensemble Voivodintsi an all-village performing group 5 km from Plovdiv.

Todor Yankov, Iliana's longtime accordionist colleague will accompany her. Todor was born in Plovdiv but grew up in the village of Dobralak in the Rhodope Mountains. His father, Vasil Yankov, was a well-known gaida player in the area. Todor began to play gaida as a child, then at age 10 took up the kaval. At age 16, he began to study accordion. For more than 20 years he has played with the Hisar folk orchestra. He is also the accordionist for the following folk dance ensembles: Ruchenitsa, Hebar, Puldin and Voivodintsi.
